

Profile of a Graduate

Religious/Spiritual:

- Students will be able to share their faith with others.
- Students will participate in daily prayer, weekly liturgy, and celebration of the sacraments of the Catholic church.
- Students will be involved in local youth service groups and be involved with the larger Anamosa community.
- Students will apply scripture to their everyday lives.

Academic:

- Students will demonstrate content mastery in all major disciplines including: Catholic religion, reading, language arts, mathematics, science, social studies, and vocal music.
- Students will be able to think through modern day problems successfully.
- Students will exercise creativity and innovation, while also taking initiative for their learning during project-based activities.
- Students will have the necessary study habits and problem-solving skills to be successful in middle school.

Social/Emotional:

- Students will interact as members of the Catholic church, while also developing their individual talents and encouraging others to use their gifts to serve others.
- Students will become active and responsible citizens always operating upon the foundation of God's teachings.
- Students will become good decision-makers.
- Students will know what resources to seek in times of need.
- Students will be well-balanced emotionally, physically, and socially.

Physical/Wellness:

- St. Patrick School will work to develop the WHOLE CHILD, by establishing and reinforcing cooperation, health/physical education, and wellness.
- Students will be aware of the importance of healthy physical development as a member of God's kingdom.
- Students will maintain active fitness goals.
- Students will practice and exhibit positive wellness habits.